Dr. Kay Dunkley is the Director of the Reynolds Homestead in Critz, VA. The Homestead features the fully restored Rock Springs Plantation House, which is the birthplace and boyhood home of tobacco manufacturer R.J. Reynolds.

The Homestead also has a Continuing Education Center, which hosts a variety of programs and classes. The historic home and Continuing Education Center are operated by the Virginia Tech Office of Outreach and International Affairs.

We will have a social and wine tasting hour starting at 6 pm hosted by Divine Llama Vineyards. Wine may be purchased by the glass or by the bottle to enjoy with dinner. A cash bar will also be available. After the wine tasting, dinner will be served at 7 pm, with the speaker presentation to follow.

$30 per person

Includes wine tasting, program, salad, chicken cordon bleu or london broil dinner with coffee, tea and dessert.

Vegetarian meal available upon request

If you have questions or would like to be added to our e-mail distribution list, please contact or send your e-mail address to Thomas Hughes at thughes@thharch.com or 336/407-8413.
